

THINKING WITH
JOHN BERGER

4th-5th September 2014
Cardiff Metropolitan University, Cardiff, Wales, UK

Keynote speakers:
Professor Bruce Robbins (Columbia University)
Professor Peter de Bolla (Cambridge University)

Hosted by Cardiff School of Education, with the support of Cardiff School of Art and Design

A conference exploring the transformative potential, for educational practice, of the work of John Berger. The conference aims to survey the application of Berger's rich interdisciplinary work across a range of fields and disciplines: literary studies; visual arts; art history; philosophy; creative writing; film production and education; performance; drawing; photography; cultural geography; critical and cultural theory.

Venue

Cardiff Metropolitan University's Llandaff campus, close to historic Llandaff village and cathedral, and a 30-minute walk through parkland to Cardiff city centre.

Call for papers

Proposals for 20-minute papers are invited. The conference is open to contributors from all subject areas and disciplines. (Deadline 1 March 2014)

For further details: tel: 029 2041 6577/7078

email: bergerconference@cardiffmet.ac.uk

web: www.cardiffmet.ac.uk/bergerconference

or contact Professor Jeff Wallace at jwallace@cardiffmet.ac.uk

Cardiff School of Education

Cardiff
Metropolitan University

Prifysgol
Metropolitan
Caerdydd