

Table 3: Emotions Triggered by Visual & Olfactory Aesthetics

Visual Aesthetics	Olfactory Aesthetics
Positive Emotions Like; calm; less nervous 'The reason why I have chosen Robert is because of his calmness projected in his face.'	Positive Emotions Calm; pleasant; relaxed 'I was nervous before talking to the bot. I was lost on the way to experiment, so I felt rushed, but scent helped me to get relaxed in the beginning.'
Negative Emotions Annoyed; don't like 'I found Bernard face very annoying, especially his happy face and his eyes.'	No effect? 'When I entered the room, I found the smell of room pleasant, but I got used to it, and I am not sure whether it has influenced my emotions or experience with a bot.'